Sleepy Time

ZGroup Mobile

Sleepy Time is an android phone application that turns your phone into a “Sound Machine” to help you fall asleep. This application will play relaxing audio loops as an android service meaning that the application can be stopped and the sounds will continue playing.

Screenshots:

Sleepy Tunes

ZGroup Mobile

If you can't sleep at night and Sleepy Time's ocean sounds or thunderstorms aren't for you, then fall asleep to your own music. Sleepy Tunes will randomly play selected music from your music library for a fixed amount of time, like a sleep timer, to help you fall asleep.

Feature suggestions welcome!

Slide Screen Pro

ZGroup Mobile

Android's stock homescreen is fine; usable, not thrilling. SlideScreen, a homescreen replacement, is a wild departure that totally changes how you use your phone.

It's a mix between Zune, MotoBlur and HTC's Sense. And I just made it my default.

Instead of the standard grid of icons and widgets we've seen in handhelds since Palm OS, SlideScreen integrates information from various sources—Google Reader, Twitter, email, text messages, calendar

Smart Lock gives you parental controls for your mobile. Select a few games/apps and keep your kids out of everything else.

Smart lock also gives you access to one app without unlocking your phone.

Great for changing songs while running or driving.

SMS Commander

ZGroup Mobile

SMS Commander is an app for the Android platform that lets you do quite a bit with your Android phone through text message. Unfortunately during our review, we couldn't get all of the features of this app to work.

This app is very similar to Force Dial, except it has more features. What you need to do when you download this app is set a passcode. Once you do that, you're good to go.

Ignoring battery life, the thing I least like about my G1 phone is the camera.

I'm not particularly hung up about the 3.2MP status or lack of flash – I think the camera actually handles low light reasonably well and I like the film-like quality of the images.

It's the bad ergonomics of the shutter button and the delay when you take a photo that annoy me.
